Dear Faithful Friends,

It’s been another blessed and amazing year.

One of the things I’ve been most grateful for throughout the past several years is all of the opportunities we’ve been given to help strengthen the leadership of the Church. This year has been no different. I’ve already reported on the blessings of being able to serve priests in Spain and the Diocese of Arlington, Virginia, in earlier newsletters. Recently, I had another opportunity of that sort.

This is the first time that I’ve been asked to do back-to-back events for all the deacons and priests of a diocese. This happened in the Diocese of Calgary, in Alberta, Canada. I gave seven talks to all the deacons and their wives and then a similar seven talks to all the priests. The study days for the Deacons and their wives took place in a downtown Calgary retreat center so they could return to their homes each evening, while the priests’ study days took place in a motel in the famous Canadian National Park in Banff, in the Canadian Rockies. There was great receptivity, and I think the Lord did some very good things for those present.

The priests decided to order 14,800 copies of my most recent booklet, Forever Grateful for Mercy, as a way of extending to many of their people some of the insights they gained during the study days. This has been our biggest single order!

We all should be living every day as if it is our last; staying very close to our Lord; and very eagerly praying for, fasting for, and speaking a word for the salvation of others.

Bishop Fred Henry, of Calgary, has been a strong defender of the truths of the faith, despite being targeted for legal harassment in the Human Rights Tribunals of Canada for being so clear in his teaching. And recently, the bishops of the Province of Alberta and the Northwest Territories have issued some statements very clearly reaffirming the truths of the faith in the face of strong cultural and political pressure to the contrary.

Another very encouraging event that I participated in recently was the annual conference of the Catholic Medical Association, held in Washington, DC. Six-hundred-and-fifty health care professionals attended, and I was delightfully surprised to discover that there was such a strong and clear presentation of the faith in the face of strong cultural and political pressure to the contrary.

At the Archdiocese of Detroit’s recent Solemn Mass of Pardon, the bishops prostrated themselves before God in repentance of many sins of both the archdiocese and its people. This honest confession will help prepare the way for an influx of grace.

There continues to be a lot of “prophetic chatter” that some chastisement is coming soon, but as we know, “soon” is a mysterious word. Nevertheless, we all should be living every day as if it is our last; staying very close to our Lord; and very eagerly praying for, fasting for, and speaking a word for the salvation of others.

About this coming year: Doors continue to open.

People in the United States and Canada are well known for their generosity. Each year, their giving sustains thousands of charitable organizations—like Renewal Ministries—that are doing a tremendous work around the world.

If you reside in Canada, the following formula applies if you live in the United States:

I give and bequeath to Catholic Renewal Ministries Inc.,
331 Evans Avenue, Toronto, Ontario M8Z 1K2, Registration No. 12374-0243-RRR001, the sum of $__________ for its general uses.

There are different ways you can make a bequest to Renewal Ministries. Here is an easy formula if you live in the United States:

I give and bequeath to Renewal Ministries Inc.,
320 Collingwood, Suite 250, Ann Arbor, MI 48103,
Tax ID 39-2385975, the sum of $__________ for its general use and purposes.

If you have any questions, please call Gary Se-romik at 734-662-1730, ext. 121. Gary is the administrator for Renewal Ministries. He will be happy to answer any of your questions.

Please Pray...

That we prepare our hearts to receive the Child Jesus anew this Advent, and that we share this gift with those struggling to find peace or joy.

“O Lord, as we travel through this day of our life, our strength is in you; in our hearts are the roads to our eternal destination, the place where you dwell forever with your people in joy and in peace. Sustain us as we pass through the bitter valley of suffering; shield us as dangers threaten; let us rejoice in the springs of living water that refresh us on our way, and keep us faithful until journey’s end, through Christ our Lord. Amen.” (Sept. 26, 2016 Magnificat meditation)

For the prayer intentions of all of our supporters and their families, especially as they face the challenges of illness and economic uncertainty.

Thank be to God for their clarity and courage!

About this coming year: Doors continue to open.

I will be leaving for India in January with a small team, and I just recently received an invitation to do retreats for all the priests, nuns, and lay leaders in a diocese in an Asian country next year. And these are just a few of the many opportunities that we have as a ministry! God has provided amazingly since Renewal Ministries began in 1980, but this next year looks challenging, financially. We just received word from one of our most major donors that he will not be able to continue his support next year. So, if you are able to step up to help us, that would be great.

Know that whatever you can do, large or small, is deeply appreciated, and will contribute to the salvation of souls.

Your brother in Christ,

Ralph Martin

Here at Renewal Ministries, we are especially grateful to several of our deceased supporters who faithfully supported our ministry during their lifetimes and made a lasting gift to us in their wills. In a sense, their giving continued even after death. They remind us that in both life and death we belong to Christ, and they provide an important example of charitable giving.

A Year of Open Doors

God opened many new doors for Renewal Ministries in 2016! Canadian Board Member Fr. Scott McCaig was ordained a bishop for the Military Ordinariate of Canada. Dr. Mary Healy, a member of the Pontifical Biblical Commission and the International Catholic Charismatic Renewal Services Doctrinal Commission, joined our team as a special consultant. Ralph Martin noted a significant increase in speaking opportunities at retreats for priests and deacons, including some in Spain and Canada. i.d.9:16 increased its young adult outreach with new chapters in four states; we led forty-two mission trips in thirty countries; and our radio, TV, books, and other media continued to flourish.

Johnnette Benkovic was a guest speaker for Renewal Ministries’ 2016 Gathering, which had 370 attendees—the largest number yet!

Priests from all over the country—and the world—come to Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit to learn more about the life of holiness and the call to a New Evangelization. Ralph is the director of this program and teaches in it each summer. Here is a photo of his most recent class.

Ralph spoke in Spain at the National Charismatic Conference and the National Priests’ Retreat. Below, he is pictured during a time of praise and worship and with (l-r) translator Vicky Rodríguez, and Fernando, Laura, and Maria Poyatos. Fernando translated The Fulfillment of All Desire into Spanish. It is now in its third printing in Spain, and all 500 copies at the conference and all thirty at the retreat sold out quickly.

Peter Herbeck prayed for Dcn. Larry Oney before his talk at Lift Jesus Higher in Toronto. Dcn. Oney is a member of Renewal Ministries’ US Board of Directors.

Renewal Ministries was exceptionally blessed this year, when a close friend became a member of our team! ♥

From Dr. Mary Healy: “We have a very similar vision in that we recognize the Holy Spirit and His supernatural gifts as essential for evangelization and desire to bring people into the full freedom that God intends for His sons and daughters. I’ve already experienced the fruit of mutual encouragement and support, prophetic words, and prayer. I hope the other team members and I can encourage each other to greater zeal for the Lord and for evangelization.”
Thank You!

We want to extend our deepest gratitude to the members of our US and Canadian Renewal Ministries Board of Directors, for all of their prayers and support throughout the past year!
