Ultimately, there are only two possible ends to the story of our life: eternal joy in Heaven with God or eternal suffering apart from God in Hell. That is why we can't put off our pursuit of holiness. The pursuit must begin now.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

And we know it will only be happy in the truest sense to the degree that we are in union with God's will for us. May it be so!

As we begin this new year, I want to draw our attention to three clear "blasts of the trumpet" that contain warnings that need to be heeded.

THE FIRST WARNING

The first warning came from Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI and was given to us after he retired. I quoted his warning on page 253 of my book, A Church in Crisis: Pathways Forward.

"One hundred years ago, everybody would have considered it to be absurd to speak of a homosexual marriage. Today, one is being excommunicated by society if one opposes it. [The same applied to] abortion and to the creation of human beings in the laboratory.

Modern society is in the middle of formulating an anti-Christian creed, and if one opposes it, one is being punished by society with ex-communication. The fear of this spiritual power of the Anti-Christ is then only more than natural, and it really needs the help of prayers on the part of an entire diocese and of the Universal Church in order to resist it."

THE SECOND WARNING

The second warning is sounded by, of all people, President Vladimir Putin, President of Russia in remarks made during a plenary session of the 18th annual meeting of the Valdai International Discussion Club in Sochi where the topic was "Global Shake-up in the 21st Century." His remarks were translated into English and are now posted on the Daily Wire website.

When I read Putin's remarks, I could hardly believe what I was reading. Putin was basically saying that Western Culture was embarking on the same disastrous path that Russia had embarked on when it turned to atheistic communism and the dogmas of Marx and Engels in the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917. He called the West's repudiation of Judeo-Christian tradition a foolish choice that would only lead to immense suffering.

After watching a widely viewed, two-and-a-half-hour interview of Ralph by Matt Fradd, one viewer enthusiastically wrote in the comment box that Ralph "is a master at explaining the truth, always charitable, yet also pulling no punches."

He specifically mentioned the loss of respect for male and female identity, traditional marriage, and sexual morality as foolish and bound to cause endless suffering. He called the attack on gender identity and the indoctrination of small children into this deception almost worthy of being called a "crime against humanity." He said that the new "diversity" rules were departures from reality and warned that, eventually, reality would have its way. He continued to say that man's attempt to build a new society by means of brute force, intimidation, and totalitarian control would collapse and cause immense suffering. Whoa!

One can question many things about Putin and his own personal and governmental morality, but what he is saying here is true. A strange, new form of Marxism has gained control of the levers of power in Western Culture. It is imposing on Western Culture a new "religion" and an ideology of "wokeness." It is pitting races against each other, dividing the world into the oppressed and the oppressor, and insisting that all bow down to it. This is the same technique of class warfare that Marxism used to try to establish the "dictatorship of the proletariat," which promised to put all political power in the hands of working-class citizens. The movement never emerged beyond dictatorship, much less resulted in the communist "paradise" it promised. Instead, it turned Russia into hell on earth with the elimination and imprisonment of millions of citizens who resisted the dictatorship.

When I read this speech from the Russian President, I felt a shock similar to the one I felt when I rediscovered Fr. Michael Scanlan's prophecy from 1976. Both seemed remarkably applicable to our situation today, and so, as I did with Fr. Scanlan's prophecy, I recorded a YouTube video commenting in some detail on Putin's warning. It is titled Ralph Martin - A Startling Warning from a Surprising Source and can be watched on Renewal Ministries' YouTube channel at this web address: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Box0rNodYU0>.

Scan the QR code to the right with your phone's camera to link directly to the video.

To date, my video on Putin's warning has been viewed over 100,000 times. The video about Fr. Scanlan's prophecy is still our most widely viewed YouTube video, however, having over 300,000 views. This one also has been translated into nine languages.

THE THIRD WARNING

The third warning comes from Archbishop Joseph Gomez, archbishop of Los Angeles and the President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). Archbishop Gomez, whom I know personally, is a gentle, mild-mannered man in a politically sensitive position who doesn't usually speak out as he did in a speech delivered by video to the Congress of Catholics and Public Life held in Madrid, Spain, on November 4, 2021.

Archbishop Gomez had signaled things to come after the election of President Biden. At that time, he warned that the new administration's agenda was hostile to many of the fundamental teachings of the Catholic Church. He warned that the new administration would be doubling down on making abortion even more widely available and paid for with taxpayer money and elevating the LGBTQA+ agenda over the rights to conscience and religious freedom. He was strongly and publicly criticized for these statements by Cardinal Cupich, archbishop of Chicago, revealing a deep division among the American bishops. This division makes any meaningful, joint action on some of these issues very difficult.

In his video speech to the audience in Madrid, Archbishop Gomez addressed the new pressure for political correctness and the woke culture here in the United States. He gave a wake-up call to recognize the massive incompatibility between the dominant forces in our culture and our Christian faith.

"An elite leadership class has risen in our countries that has little interest in religion and no real attachments to the nations they live in or to local traditions or cultures... This group, which is in charge in corporations, governments, universities, the media, and in the cultural and professional establishments, wants to establish what we might call a global civilization... In fact, as they see it, religion, especially Christianity, only gets in the way of the society they hope to build."

While acknowledging the importance of Catholic social teaching and the need to continue to correct injustices, whether racial or economic, Archbishop Gomez warned that these movements have now become elevated into virtual religions, attempting to build a perfect society without God or realism about human nature. As a result, he said, "these strictly secular movements are causing new forms of social division, discrimination, intolerance, and injustice." He said these movements "seem to be coming from the same Marxist cultural vision," calling them "dangerous substitutes for true religion."

The world does not need a new secular religion to replace Christianity. It needs you and me to be better witnesses. Better Christians.

//Archbishop Joseph Gomez

Archbishop Gomez warned that space is shrinking in our societies for believing Christians, Church institutions, and Christian-owned businesses. The cultures being "canceled" by the elite leadership class of the United States and Europe are those that originated with Christian beliefs.

And his advice about how we should respond?

"My answer is simple. We need to proclaim Jesus Christ. Boldly, creatively... With charity and confidence, without fear... We should not be intimidated by these new religions of social justice and political identity. The Gospel remains the most powerful force for social change that the world has ever seen... Of course, in the Church we have not always lived up to our beautiful principles, or carried out the mission entrusted to us by Christ. But the world does not need a new secular religion to replace Christianity. It needs you and me to be better witnesses. Better Christians. Let us begin by forgiving, loving, sacrificing for others, putting away spiritual poisons like resentment and envy."

I've recorded a video on Archbishop Gomez's insightful speech titled Ralph Martin – Archbishop Gomez Hits a Home Run; Who is Next Up to Bat? You can watch it on Renewal Ministries' YouTube Channel at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B9J-bHH0PZw&t=1s>.

Let us all heed these warnings and their implied and explicit solutions. In this new year, let's resolve to live our faith more deeply. Let's re-dedicate ourselves to prayer, a deeper relationship with the person of Jesus, a deeper desire for the Holy Spirit, and a deeper reliance on the Father's immense, personal love for each of us. Let us not be afraid but always be ready to give a reason for the great hope that we have within us (1 Peter 3:15), the hope of a life beyond death in the Father's house - our hope in eternal life.

Your brother in Christ,

Ralph Martin

BY PETER NEWBURN

Country Coordinator for Cameroon

Peter has served in full-time ministry for over thirty-five years. He and his family spent three years as missionaries in Cameroon, where Peter was a theology teacher at the major seminary. He also worked for almost nine years as a parish life coordinator in the Diocese of San Bernardino, California, where he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of pastoral ministry and the administration of a large parish.

Last fall we held our seventh Renewal Ministries mission to Cameroon, Africa. Peter Newburn, Renewal Ministries' Country Coordinator for Cameroon, led a team of three other missionaries from the United States: Fr. Walter Nolte, Anthony Feola, and Remy Takam. They collaborated with Father Jude Langeh from Cameroon, who organized all logistics on the ground and was an integral team member. Peter filled us in on the mission, saying that it was perhaps the most important and impactful mission so far!

The purpose of our mission was to provide inspiration and renewal to priests in Cameroon, and the Lord exceeded all our expectations! As a group, we experienced an amazing anointing with grace and blessings flowing for our entire time together. We ministered to two different groups of clergy - finally professed Claretians in the country and priests from the northern part of Cameroon.

SPREADING THE GOSPEL IN CAMEROON

Our Mission

We began our first week by training a group of approximately fifty-five Claretian missionaries during their annual retreat. We were invited and hosted by Fr. Jude Thaddeus Langeh, CME, the Major Superior of the Claretians, in order to facilitate the retreatants' personal renewal in the Holy Spirit, promote reconciliation and unity amongst the presbyterate, and inspire greater openness to the work of the Holy Spirit in the Charismatic Renewal. We also introduced participants to the Unbound Ministry by leading them through the Five Keys of deliverance and healing prayer -

- » Repentance & Faith
- » Forgiveness
- » Renunciation
- » Authority
- » The Father's Blessing

- an experience which then became a model for the clergy in how to use the Five Keys to minister to the laity. It was aptly expressed by Archbishop Faustin Ambassa, Archdiocese of Garoua, that

"If we [as priests] are not ourselves using the Five Keys, are we not like the blind leading the blind?"

Fr. Nolte offered magisterial teaching from his own personal and pastoral experience of the Charismatic Renewal. He also presided and preached at the daily Masses, offering wisdom, inspiration, and reinforcement of the content.

Our second week involved travel to the north region of Cameroon, a seventeen-hour drive each way, to the Archdiocese of Garoua. We were assisted by Fr. Jude and three Claretian priests who had just experienced the first training with us. We again presented teaching on the Kerygma, the Charismatic Renewal in the Church, and presented the Five Keys of Unbound Ministry. We invited retreatants to be open to the Holy Spirit in their lives and ministries with each of these presentations. We had the opportunity to use the Five Keys to pray individually with about fifty priests who desired it. Most of them expressed that they felt a weight lifted and had a greater sense of peace, healing, and freedom. Many of them said that they were finally able to forgive someone who had deeply hurt them.

Testimony from Anthony Feola

"The Holy Spirit moved powerfully in the hearts of these priests. At the end of our first retreat, I was asked to share my personal testimony about the power of the Holy Spirit in my life. The presence of God moved into our midst, and one priest, in particular, was deeply touched. As I uttered the phrase, 'The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of unity,' he burst into exuberant song, 'Holy Spirit come down, we are waiting, we are waiting...' Like rain from heaven, everyone joined as one voice glorifying God in Spirit and truth. Many things happened in that moment, including reports of physical healings. Even more beautiful - and what clearly set this apart as a genuine move of the Holy Spirit - was how the priests spontaneously began to repent, reconcile with one another, and forgive one another publicly. There was so much joy in that room!"

Relationship Building

Relationship building was an important part of our time in Cameroon. Our team met with six different bishops in six different dioceses! In addition, I communicated by text with four bishops in four other dioceses in the Anglophone areas. During our conversations, I was able to tell the bishops more about Renewal Ministries. I shared our vision, methodology, the content we have to offer, and testimonies from this particular mission. As a result, the Bishops of Bafia and Ngoundere invited us to come next summer to facilitate their annual clergy retreat! We plan to coordinate with them to have the retreats scheduled back-to-back at the end of June 2022.

Two truly Special Claretian Celebrations

A unique occurrence among our experiences was the opportunity to accompany the Claretians for two extraordinary liturgies, which were filled with lots of exuberant singing and dancing. One liturgy was held in the newly opened, newly built church and rectory for the newly assigned Claretian fathers in a remote part of the Archdiocese of Garoua. The other was held in Yaoundé on the feast day of Saint Anthony Claret, the founder of the Claretians. We were warmly welcomed, and it was an honor to participate with them. Fr. Nolte had the great privilege of concelebrating both of these joyful Masses.

Unbound Partnership

It really seems that the Lord is opening doors in Cameroon for using Unbound Ministry to help countless people to embrace the Gospel message, to foster deeper conversion, and to facilitate greater healing and freedom. We are thrilled to be partnering with Unbound. Many bishops in Africa welcome its model for deliverance and healing as being effective, impactful, and in harmony with Catholic tradition and practice.

Upon our return, I emailed Neal Lozano, the founder and executive director of Heart of the Father Ministries-Unbound Ministry, and Matt Lozano, Neal's son and the director of leadership development. I shared the interest and openness we experienced from many Cameroon bishops, priests, lay leaders, and various congregations of religious sisters. Neal and Matt were genuinely excited with this report and expressed their desire to support our efforts by moving toward translating training materials into French and making themselves available via Zoom. I am considering using Zoom to have an initial meeting with bishops and interested priests who have already experienced Unbound training.

Future Plans

In addition to contacts made with bishops and priests, and the possibilities of doing even more with Unbound Ministries, we had two separate conversations with the leader and vice-leader of the national advisory committee for the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. We strategized how to provide training and support for lay leaders in the Five Keys of Unbound and collaborate with their parish priests. We also connected with the Major Superiors of religious communities in the Bamenda province to assess interest in providing Unbound training. There is also potential for us to lead an annual retreat for the Franciscan or Teresian communities of religious sisters.

Thank you

Fr. Jude Langeh was so grateful and appreciative of our team and all that was accomplished, as was Archbishop Faustin Ambassa from the Archdiocese of Garoua. We truly praise God for a highly successful mission and for the opportunities to proclaim the Gospel and promote renewal in Cameroon!

While visiting a local parish, we were surrounded by the eager, smiling faces of children after Mass. Seeing an opportunity to encourage them in their faith, we gave each child a prayer card containing an illustration of Jesus that Anthony's daughter had designed.

Renewal Ministries'
New US Board Member
SR. MARY GABRIEL

Sr. Mary Gabriel, SV, is one of Renewal Ministries' newest Board members. As a member of the Sisters of Life religious community based in New York, NY, Sr. Mary Gabriel has served her community in various capacities since 1999. We are thrilled that she has agreed to serve on our Board of Directors as well. During her recent visit to our Ann Arbor office, we had a chance to get to know Sr. Mary Gabriel a bit better and be inspired by hearing a portion of her personal testimony.

"Jesus and connection to the Gospel are what our hearts are made for," Sr. Mary Gabriel shared with us. "Living even a part of our life outside of that connection is a recipe for unhappiness, restlessness, anxiety, and the kind of pain that He has saved us from. But we don't have to live like that. I know this first hand.

I grew up Catholic in New York. I went to a Catholic school, and in 7th grade, I experienced being mocked by my two best friends for singing too loudly, for really belting out the songs during Mass. After that experience, I made the real decision that it was too costly - socially - to mix my faith and my social life. So fast forward, I went through high school and college and had a surface level faith, well, sometimes a little more than surface level, but I really dedicated myself to my social life. That had much more weight than my faith life.

When I got to college, I had settled into this pattern of compartmentalization, but halfway through, I found myself very unhappy and restless. I came to this fundamental question of, 'Am I really living as if God truly exists?' I say I believe, but does it impact every part of my life? So, I sent up this heartfelt prayer for the first time in a long time; 'God, if you exist, I need you to break in.' I truly needed him to answer that prayer. I couldn't go on anymore in my faith on the intellectual level only because it was just not sufficient.

After praying that prayer, I began to have more of what I called these 'tap-in moments.' Moments where I knew that the Lord was real. He existed. He had a plan for me. Slowly I began to recognize that I wasn't going to come to a deeper understanding about my faith by just going through the motions nor by thinking hard enough, but by responding to his grace. And it was by that grace that I began to incrementally understand many of the hot button issues, such as the Church's teaching on birth control. As I brought my thinking into alignment with the Church, I became more and more convicted that the Lord was for me, was for women. Through this time, I really fell in love with the Church. Once I could say, 'I don't understand; I need your grace, Lord,' that is when I found that there was a love for me (his love), that I could respond to that love, and that I wanted to be with that love.

When I graduated from college, the Lord began working on this fear of mine of stepping out beyond my private faith. I was working in Manhattan at the time and had a lot of friends who didn't share the faith, so there were still these two separate worlds, but I began to volunteer with the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal. Very quickly, they invited me to train to do sidewalk counseling (for pregnant women), and I did, and every time I went out and said 'yes' to that really public witness, there was such a grace that was not of my making but from the Lord. Every time I said 'yes' to just a little bit more trust, the Lord really visited me with greater peace and greater love, really with more joy which was fuel for the next step (of considering the religious life). Finally I knew I could trust his love and goodness wherever he called me, and I could share his love and goodness with confidence with those tempted to disbelieve it. And that's what the Sisters of Life do - loving each woman, so she comes to know God's love for her, her own dignity, and the gift of her child."

Today, as a professed member of the Sisters of Life, Sr. Mary Gabriel wears a full, religious habit with such ease, visible joy, and confidence that it is clear to all who meet her that she has responded to the Lord's grace. She has let her heart want what his heart wants for her future without reservation or fear of others' opinions.

When asked about her decision to join our Board of Directors, Sr. Mary Gabriel said, "For decades now, Renewal Ministries has been dedicated to proclaiming the unfathomable gift of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I am humbled and grateful to serve on the Board of an organization whose love for the Lord and his Church and zeal for souls is manifested in courageous witness to the truth."

And we are so very grateful for her witness to the transforming power of God's love, for her "yes" to protecting and enhancing the sacredness of human life as a member of the Sisters of Life, and her "yes" to joining the Renewal Ministries' Board of Directors. Thank you, Sr. Mary Gabriel!

GRATEFUL FOR MY TIME WITH The Renewal Ministries' Family

Late last year, Renewal Ministries' editor, Heather Schultz, handed the writing baton off to Heidi Bratton, our current editor. Before departing we asked Heather to reflect on some of the most memorable events and impactful experiences of her six years with us. Here is her inspiring reflection:

“When I discerned God was calling me in a new direction, I trusted He also was calling someone new to take on this important role. Nevertheless, it was hard to say goodbye after six years - a time that deepened my faith through immersion in inspiring content and association with humble, God-seeking people.

One of my favorite memories is sharing work stories with my daughter and her high school classmates while driving the afternoon carpool. I started working with Renewal Ministries at the same time that my oldest daughter began attending a local Catholic high school, so after a day of work, I had a captive audience of three freshman girls. As I shared stories of God's goodness that I heard at the office, I prayed God would plant seeds in their hearts that would one day bear fruit.

The Lift Jesus Higher Rally in Toronto also proved to be a time of great blessings for my family. Two of my children assisted with prayer ministry at the youth event. Seeing God at work in the hearts and lives of their peers, even amid great struggles, tremendously impacted my children's faith and even helped lead my daughter to continue serving young people in other areas of her life.

As I faced the crosses in my family's life over the past six years, I was grateful for notes from supporters who were praying for both the ministry and its staff. I was encouraged and strengthened by the faith-based content I was blessed to dive into each month.

I was humbled by the support given by fellow staff members, like when Producer Jack Lynch and his wife drove nearly an hour to our house to pray over our son whose life had been turned upside down by a difficult-to-resolve illness. Jack said they didn't have a charisma of healing but that the primary goal of praying with others was to let them know they are loved, and he hoped he and his wife could do that. Indeed, they achieved that in abundance.

Sr. Ann also opened the doors of her office to me many times, and while I was always grateful for her wisdom, what I carry with me the most is how she made me feel loved.

Renewal Ministries has changed a lot in recent years. When I started, our young adult ministry, id, was a team of three people working in one dark room. Now its staff of six shares a strong presence within our office and does work that reaches internationally. In late 2019, God provided a way for us to move into a larger office, which allows members of Be Love Revolution and Zion, ministries for high-school-aged girls and boys, to work from our office and participate in staff Bible studies and meetings. The new office even has a recording studio, which also has helped the ministry increase its outreach. When our team began growing substantially, Ralph Martin implemented a staff Bible study to ensure we all grew with the same heart for and understanding of the Gospel. It has been a beautiful and effective way to keep us connected and encouraged in this work for Christ!

I am most grateful for the profound Christian character that I have witnessed in all who work for and support this ministry: humility, fervent love of the Lord, eager desire to make Him known, and commitment to listen to the Lord and move according to his direction. I have witnessed such beautiful examples of people praying, fasting, trusting, and striving to respond in faith to help lead souls to God. Their example has inspired me to strive to grow in similar ways and walk in greater freedom and courage when it comes to sharing the Lord's truths or simply responding to a nudge from the Holy Spirit to welcome a new family at Mass.

I am moving on from Renewal Ministries due to a call from the Lord to shift my focus back toward my family's current needs. I am beyond grateful for the kindness shown to me by our supporters, and I will continue to pray for you. Let's keep encouraging each other to say yes to God's call, even when we aren't sure where it will lead. Let's keep sharing the Gospel with everyone He asks us to. Let's continue seeking Him and asking Him to help us love Him more each day."
