CATHOLIC RENEWAL & EVANGELIZATION

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

MARCH 2024

Dear Friends,

I want to begin this month's letter with a thank you.

Over the past few months, the entire Renewal Ministries' team has been profoundly encouraged by your support. We're greatly blessed to be surrounded by such a cloud of witnesses that partners with us in mission through prayer, words of encouragement, the sharing of spiritual insights, and generous—even sacrificial—giving in unstable economic times. We've always been conscious of this blessing and grateful for it, but this year especially, amid the intensification of the spiritual battles inside and outside the Church, we have felt your support perhaps more than ever. We know we're not standing alone, and we are able to share that knowledge with all who read our newsletter, listen to our videos, attend events at which we are speaking, or live in countries we serve through missions. Thank you from all of us here at Renewal Ministries.

Speaking of the battle, it is surely intensifying! Now more than ever, we need one another. The political and cultural deconstruction of the world is deepening; the godless cult of self-expressive individualism continues to gain ground and do great harm, especially to the young; and, of course, there are growing battles, divisions, and spiritual compromises within the Church, even at her highest levels! That's a lot to face every day. It can be very discouraging, especially when these battles cause division in our own families. As St. Peter reminds us, the devil is on the prowl, "seeking someone to devour" (1 Pt 5:8).

The devil's ultimate strategy for each one of us is simple:

He's trying to get us to quit.

The only way he can win his battle against us is to get us to give up, to give in, to quit the fight. He tries to manipulate us, fill us with fear and discouragement, and cause us to lose hope. He tempts us to compromise, seek comfort, protect our idols, purchase safety, and abandon fidelity to Christ. As a good priest friend of mine has had to remind me over the years when I've struggled with some of these temptations, the battle has already been won—period! The only way we as individuals lose is if we give up. Combat for the Christian looks different than any other form of battle.

COMBAT FOR THE CHRISTIAN LOOKS DIFFERENT THAN ANY OTHER FORM OF BATTLE.

We win simply by not giving up!

When St. Paul instructs us to put on the armor of God, he defines the battle-posture of the Christian (see Eph 6:10-20). He exhorts us to stand four times. Think about Paul's words. We ask,

"Lord, what should we do?"

St. Paul tells us:

Stand, stand, stand, stand!

Stand on the Word of God. Put on the protective armor and stand ready to bear witness with God's Word, the teaching of Jesus, and the testimony of the apostles. Stand ready, not to battle with worldly weapons by attacking our enemies, but by being alert (1 Pt 5:8), keeping your head in all situations, and enduring hardship in order to express fidelity to Jesus and bear witness to the truth (2 Tm 4:5).

These are hard times, but these are the times the Lord has given to us. I often think about the martyrs celebrated in the Book of Revelation:

"And they have conquered him (the devil) by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death"
(Rv 12:11).

The martyr is the quintessential disciple. A martyr conquers through being baptized into Christ and washed clean by his precious blood, so that he or she no longer lives under the dominion of the devil and the powers of sin and death. The devil has no hold on them; they are no longer subject to the fear of death and are free from the enslaving power of inordinate self-love (Heb 2:14-15). By God's grace, their loves are rightly ordered, which allows them to make a sacrifice of their lives. They are faithful, suffering witnesses who conquer "not by violence afflicted, but through violence suffered."<sup>1</sup>

God has chosen us for such a time as this. Only He knows how difficult these times will become and what He has in store for each one of us. For our part, we're called to live in a posture of readiness, standing each day on the rock that is our Lord Jesus Christ, and ready to bear witness to the truth in words and deeds, no matter the cost.

Let's pray for one another that we may not fall asleep and miss the precious gift of suffering, even a little, for the sake of the name of Jesus.

Beloved, do not be surprised by the fiery ordeal which comes upon you to prove you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice in so far as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are reproached for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.
(1 Pt 4:12-14)

Gratefully yours,

Peter

Peter

A Spirit-Led Encounter

BY ANTHONY FEOLA

Associate Director of Disciple Formation for the Archdiocese of Detroit and a Renewal Ministries' Mission Team Member

This article is condensed from one originally published by the Archdiocese of Detroit.

The powerful Spirit-led encounter between Philip and the Ethiopian in Acts 8:27-35 gives us a roadmap for unleashing the Gospel during this season of Eucharistic revival! Here are three simple points to implement today:

1 OBEY THE HOLY SPIRIT

"The Spirit said to Philip, 'Go . . .'"

Be open, available, and aware that the Holy Spirit wants to help you bring others to Jesus. He is the principal agent of the Church's mission (CCC 852).

2 MEET PEOPLE WHERE THEY ARE

"Philip ran to him . . ."

At the Ethiopian's invitation, Philip sat with him and inquired if he understood what he was reading.

3 PROCLAIM THE GOSPEL

"Then Philip opened his mouth . . ."

Without hesitation, Philip answers the deepest longing of this man's heart by sharing the "good news of Jesus."

Last year, at the start of the National Eucharistic Revival on Corpus Christi Sunday, a few hundred parishioners attended a eucharistic procession my parish organized in a public park. During adoration, a sixty-five-year-old man with a skateboard (whom I will call Don) sat down at the front of the crowd. I sensed the Holy Spirit's still, small voice urging me to go to him. I introduced myself and asked if he understood what was happening. Reeking of alcohol and perhaps expecting me to escort him from the premises, Don responded angrily,

*"I know you came over here to tell me something,
so just get it over with!"*

The Holy Spirit guided my response,

"I have four things to say. First, God created you in his image and likeness because He loves you."

This provoked an onslaught of cussing. Once he calmed down, I continued,

"But you have the same problem I do—sin.
Your sin separates you from God and his love."

Verbal persecution followed. Not giving up, I proclaimed the good news to him.

"Jesus came for you, died for you, and rose again for you."

Once Don finished his third rebuttal, I invited him to repent and respond to the Gospel. By the grace of God, when I asked to pray with him, Don was ready and willing. I gently placed my hand on his shoulder and invited the Holy Spirit to come.

Moments later, the eucharistic procession began and I invited Don to join us. He picked up his skateboard, and we began to follow Jesus, who was just as present as when He walked the streets of Jerusalem. As we walked, I shared more about God's love. Slowly, Don's heart softened.

I asked if he remembered the story of the Last Supper. He did, so I asked if he could finish these quotes, "Take and eat" and "Take and drink." As Don finished each sentence about Christ's body and blood, I pointed to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, drawing near us in the procession. Don soberly asked if this was Communion. I declared boldly: "That's Him!"

Just then, Jesus in the Eucharist passed directly in front of Don. Without any prompting, he fell to his knees, faced the ground, and reached his hands out on the grass. Moments later, with his demeanor completely changed, Don rose and wiped tears from his eyes.

When we obey the Spirit, meet people where they are, and unleash the Gospel with God's uncompromising love, we will encounter true eucharistic revival! Authentic adoration leads us to proclaim the Gospel to others, and proclaiming the Gospel leads us and those around us to recognize and adore Jesus in the Eucharist. In this way, unleashing the Gospel is eucharistic revival!

Holy Spirit, please consume my heart with the blazing fire of God's love in the Eucharist that not only transforms me but leads me to unleash the Gospel into the lives of the lost and broken.

Young Adult Discipleship

GRATEFUL FOR THE PAST . . . LOOKING FORWARD TO THE FUTURE

By Pete Burak, Vice-President of Renewal Ministries

It was the summer of 2011, and I didn't know what to do next. I had just graduated from Franciscan University of Steubenville with the plan of coming back to Michigan for a Master's Degree in Education. But as I filled out the application and thought about the path ahead, I only experienced peace and joy when I envisioned helping people meet Jesus. I had known Ralph Martin and Peter Herbeck most of my life, as my parents had lived in the same community as them for many years. I had always wanted to be like Peter, so it made sense to share with him my desire to serve the Lord. Sitting in the Herbecks' living room, I asked Peter if Renewal Ministries had any space for me. He replied with, "Not really, but let's pray about it and see what happens."

Soon after, I got a job as a gym teacher at a local Catholic school, and the principal gave me Fridays off to pursue ministry work. Peter graciously offered to meet and pray with me on those days, and I found myself sitting at his feet, listening and learning about evangelization and discipleship. As time went on, I noticed an ache developing in me for my peers who had left the faith or had never heard the Gospel. I regularly prayed,

"Lord, break my heart for what breaks yours."

Eventually, Jesus answered that prayer. One day in adoration, I found myself crying, distressed to the core over young adults who did not know Jesus. This holy discontent, along with the leadership and sacrifice of many people, helped launch the Renewal Ministries' outreach known as i.d.9:16, and then just id, with the mission of helping young adults become intentional disciples of Jesus Christ.

The ache in my heart has not gone away, even as we've seen both significant mission fruitfulness and frustrating failures. Our team has grown and changed; parishes we've partnered with have come and gone; the leaders we've formed have grown, built, and moved on. Through it all, we have desperately wanted people to meet Jesus, fall in love with Him, and share Him with others. We've tried to build communities of missionary disciples led by Spirit-filled leaders who have a deep and convicting desire and strategy to engage those in the pews and reach those who are not. We've conducted retreats all over the US and Canada, led Alpha courses, provided dozens and dozens of Disciples' Nights, produced leadership and discipleship content, and haven't stopped innovating and trying new things, because we only want to do what Jesus is inspiring us to do. "Expectant listening" is one of our team values, which means we believe God desires to communicate with us and that we can hear and discern his will.

Every year, Jesus invites us to emphasize new things, stop other ones, and trust Him more and more—and 2023 was no exception!

All of this leads to an announcement: Last spring, Director of Young Adult Discipleship Rachel Herbeck, Director of Operations Chris Baker, and I embarked on a period of discernment to hear from the Lord on his perspective

Through it all, we have desperately wanted people to meet Jesus, fall in love with Him, and share Him with others.

and plans for id moving forward. After much peaceful, occasionally surprising, and hopeful conversations, and with the approval of Ralph, Peter, and the Renewal Ministries' Board, we've decided it's time for id to end as a distinct outreach of Renewal Ministries.

To be clear, we are closing the doors only on the concept of id's work as a separate part of Renewal Ministries' overall mission. What remains steadfast is our commitment to our current team and to the young adults we want to continue reaching with the full Gospel. The overall vision and mission of Renewal Ministries also remains unchanged. Over the past year, we have come to believe that the Lord showed us we can be more fruitful both as individuals and as members of Renewal Ministries by responding to opportunities without the constraints of the current "id model" and "id branding." Instead, we'll look for avenues for preaching the Gospel and helping people grow as disciples, become Spirit-filled Leaders, and live in the power of the Holy Spirit, but in a manner more consistent with how Renewal Ministries has operated around the world for the past forty-plus years.

To be clear,
we are closing the doors only
on the concept of id's work as a separate part of Renewal Ministries'
overall mission.

There's often sadness that comes with something ending, and we definitely feel the bittersweetness of this transition. However, we are confident the Lord is leading us in this direction, and we are excited for the doors He will open moving forward.

I want to thank you all for your prayers, financial support, and enthusiasm for our mission over the years. We never would have started discipleship communities in Jacksonville, Florida; preached the Gospel in Fargo, North Dakota; or developed Spirit-filled leaders in Perth, Australia, without the loyal and faithful friends of Renewal Ministries behind us. Please don't stop supporting us, because although id is ending, the original heartache remains. Our passion for souls remains unabated, and the need for the younger generations to hear the Gospel has only increased.

In October of 2011, a group of us went on retreat to cry out to God for guidance, and during one of the prayer times, the Lord drew our attention to 1 Corinthians 9:16:

"If I preach the Gospel, this gives me no grounds for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach it."

As the Lord calls us to serve Him and the Church in a variety of ways moving forward, be assured, we will not stop trying to help people become intentional disciples!

NEW! from Pete Burak

In this booklet, Pete Burak examines what the Bible teaches us is necessary to get to heaven: conversion, repentance, and faith. Relying heavily on Jesus' words in Scripture, Burak clearly explains why the Church shouldn't strive to find common ground with the world but rather to help the world—and each of us individually—conform to the Gospel.
